Important Vote in the Senate.

On Thursday, 18th inst., the following proceedings and vote were had in the Tennessee Senate:

SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION. Senate joint resolution by Mr. Carrigat Whereas, A certain memorial has recently been presented to the Reconstruction Committee of the Congress of the United States, styling itself the Union Central Committee of Tennessee," and assured by its authors to be a true and faithful repreresentation of the political condition of our State, and designed by its authors to be a "stumbling block" to the speedy resumptior of our relations to the Federal Union, and a "sheet anchor" to those in Congress who oppose President Johnson and his policy of Reconstruction; and

WHEREAS, The memorialists are men unknown to the people of Tennessee, (with one exception,) as well as to "honor or fame," and that they neither represent the Union sentiments of East, Middle nor West Tennessee; and

WHEREAS, They say in their dark-lantern memorial concerning the people of Tennessee, that their protestations of loyalty are sheer hypocrisy -a mask assumed for an object to be thrown off when that object is accomplished," we feel called upon by a sacred sense of duty to our country to vindicate the pledged honor and fidelity of our people, and pronounce all such charges and allegations ilse and infamous; therefore,

Be it resolved by the General Assembly of the State of Tennessee, That the said memorial is not the embodiment of the sentiments of the Union people of ar State, and that we can assure the Reconstruction Committee in Congress, and our friends througheut the Union, that our people are now entering upon a high state of peace and prosperity, and that their industry and economy are daily being brought into great activity, and they seem entirely willing and anxious to support, in good faith, the constitution of the United States and of the State of Tennessee, and are obeying all laws and requirements, both State and Federal, with remarkable unanimity. candor and sincerity.

Under a suspension of the rule, laid on the table, on motion of Mr. Hall, by the following vote, on a calling of the aves and noes. Ayes-Aldridge, Bosson, Cate, Cypert, Hall, Keith, McKinney, Nelson, Senter and Trimble-10.
